

ALL-MEDITATION RETREATS

Come and experience the depths of your Soul connections through the love of your heart center.

Feel the radiance within your own being and the bliss that comes with self-discovery. In inspiring and sacred settings, Jonathan shares insights and guidance for living in the awareness of unconditional love, and will assist you in releasing the limitations of mind that keep you from the pure experience of your Divine essence.

These retreats are for those who are willing to commit to taking the next quantum leap in their spiritual growth. You will probe into the core make-up of who you are, discover why your life has been the way it has, and explore the depths of enlightening awareness.

During the retreat, you will go through a progression of guided and silent meditations to experience how your inner soul essence relates to your life.

A Time of Soaring Spirits and Laughing Hearts

You will be lead through beautiful meditations each day to help you access the deep love, wisdom, and divinity within you. The processes we use will help you embrace each moment of life and experience how that embrace removes the boundaries to reveal your deepest essence. You will connect with the highest

"What you have facilitated for my growth is unbelievable! I am empowered! Finally all doubt, guilt and fears have been released. I feel love toward everybody and everything. The peace and tranquility is sublime. You have been the vehicle. Thank you Jonathan my dear friend for guiding me here. I hope people will believe it is possible because it is." —Elma D., TX

"This experience brought me closer than I've ever been to the source of our existence. Had it not been for my friend, I would have missed the opportunity to be a part of this group of warm and loving people and to experience your guidance in the meditation process. To come to God through meditation is a wonderful thing and one I have never experienced so completely before. Thank you Jonathan for giving me the opportunity to be here." —Claudette C., PA

"We had never been to any of your classes or retreats before, but we have to say it was well worth it. We will certainly do it again and encourage others to do the same. You have definitely inspired us. Your meditations took us quantum leaps ahead to much more than we ever dreamed of. What an exhilarating experience that will allow us to go forward on our path much quicker to total enlightenment. You allowed us to really feel and understand all the words we keep hearing. We thank you for this wonderful work you do helping us to discover who and what we are so we can live in our truth, expressing God in all we do." —Kathy & Randy M., AZ
